

Reading and Writing Genre Map 2024-25

Term	Sycamore	Acacia	Willow	Juniper
Advent 1	Narratives Simple recount Non-chronological reports Character descriptions Paragraphs Dialogue	Historical Fiction -short narratives -Informal Letters -Non-chronological report	Dystopian novels Narratives Informal Letter Newspapers Non-chronological report	Historical Fiction Suspense narrative Biography
Advent 2	Adventure narratives Develop narratives Descriptions Performance poetry	Poetry: Creating narrative poetry Narratives Letters- formal	Narrative poetry Narratives Formal Letter Figurative language- poetry	Classic poetry Narrative Poetry Recount Writing a balanced argument Formal letter writing
Lent 1	Biographies and Poetry Creating poetry Letter writing Fact files about people	Classic Fiction -Developing settings -Narratives -Figurative language	Modern fiction- racism/diversity Narratives Informal Letter Non-Chronological report	Fantasy/mystery narrative Diaries Recount Informal Letters descriptive narrative
Lent 2	Stories about friendship Short narratives Character analysis
Pentecost 1	Classic narratives non-chronological reports writing to inform -argument and persuasion Magazine writing	Picture books -sequel stories -Using dialogue -simple newspapers	Classic fiction Writing a balanced argument Non- chronological report	Classic Narratives Speeches Political Address Narrative
Pentecost 2	Newspapers Friendship Narratives -simple newspapers -writing postcards -instructions	Playscripts Writing own version of a playscript Character descriptions	Playscripts Diary Sequel Explanation texts	Playscripts Poetry Playscripts Newspapers